Autism Awareness Month

Students with Autism get tech savvy & have fun

In celebration of Autism Awareness Month, join us for this free, 60-minute workshop where participants with autism will be able to go behind the scenes to learn how to code, program, and play in a custom game world. You'll use fun, interactive coding to learn how creativity and problem solving come together to make something all your own. No experience with coding is required.

All Workshops will be set in an autism safe and friendly environment. Please note, the store will be closed to the public during these workshops.

Connect with your local Microsoft Store team to learn about our workshops, apps, and Windows 10 accessibility tools.

Our Autism Awareness workshops have a capacity of 10 students with autism. The workshop will be facilitated by 2 staff members who have been trained to support students with autism. We ask that one parent/caregiver stay present and engaged throughout the workshop. You know your child best. While you're here, please help us in facilitating an enjoyable workshop for informing us of specific learning needs, and supporting your child as we teach exciting content.

Stephen G. Largy, the Senior Consultant and President of ONdisabilities will also be in attendance for four Autism Awareness Events. ONdisabilities consists of team of Specialists in Disabilities in the Workplace, Workplace Accommodation, and Creating Truly Inclusive Workplaces.
